

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1909.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, JANUARY 26, 1904.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

POSITIVELY

Copy for "changes" in advertisements MUST be sent in before 2 o'clock on the previous day.

85 If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

Gerbrich's end is not in sight. His Pianos sell every day in the place. No chance to accumulate side-tracked ones.

The many friends of Miss Lella Tabor, who has been indisposed with pneumonia, are glad to know that she is much better.

Judge George Linville has resigned as Police Judge of Mt. Olivet, and his brother, Jerry Linville, has been appointed in his place.

Mr. Charles A. Walther, who has just recovered from a ten weeks illness, has drawn $150 on a health policy which he had been wise enough to take out.

Until February 1st, 1904, with every $1 purchase, you get a ticket on an elegant Diamond Ring. We will also give tickets to those paying their accounts before February 1st.

MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Sammet Lagrig, who resides with his parents on the old Sulzer place at the intersection of the Fleming and Hill City pikes, was thrown from a horse Sunday. His shoulder was hurt by the fall and leg injured by the horse stepping on it.

Mr. Ephraim Beckett, a soldier of the Spanish American War, died at the Soldiers Home at Dayton, O., Sunday and will be buried Wednesday in the Cemetery attached to the Home. He was a member of the Fourth Kentucky and a brother of Mr. Bogue Beckett of the Sixth Ward.

The corner of Second and Market has been hooded, at least some of the conductors in the street railway service think so. Saturday a car at this point was derailed and ran half way across the street, and Monday morning the same performance was repeated, blocking the track for several hours.

Earl Henry McCloud, for the past fifteen years a passenger conductor on the C. and O., died at his residence, 1906 Greenup street, Covington, Sunday, aged 47 years. He was one of the most popular conductors on the road and had many friends in this city who will not soon forget the genial Earl.

MAYSVILLE'S NEW INDUSTRY

Pressed Brick Plant Will Begin Operations Early This Spring

The LEDGER yesterday made brief mention of the Spahr Pressed Brick Works, which will soon begin operations in the East End.

The incorporators are A. C. Spahr, E. S. Spahr, S. M. Hall, E. A. Robinson and Frank O. Barkley, all of this city, and the capital stock is $100,000.

The new enterprise will utilize the late Maysville Fairgrounds, which were purchased by Mr. A. C. Spahr last spring.

I. M. Lane and a corps of workmen will begin at once remodeling the magnificent amphitheater to adapt it for its new use; and instead of a resort for thousands of happy fair patrons it will in the future be devoted to the storage of clay and the manufacture of pressed brick.

It is estimated that the machinery and preparations will cost about $50,000, and when the plant is finished it will be one of the most complete in the country.

TEMPERATURE WILL FALL

Northwest Is In the Throes of the Worst Blizzard of Years

A fierce blizzard is raging in the Northwest. At Chicago yesterday the thermometer registered 15 degrees below zero.

Milwaukee 23 below.
Grand Rapids 10 below.
Bloomington 12 below.
Nebraska 17 below.
Western Iowa 17 below.
Northwestern Missouri 10 below.
Northern Kansas 10 below.
LaCrosse 27 below.
Duluth 47 below.

The temperature will probably reach the zero mark here within the next twenty-four hours.

The Sort of "Rot" That Gives Kentucky Towns a Bad Name Abroad

For an article of self-manufacture out of imaginative material, the following from Sunday's Louisville Herald is entitled to the pig-skin—

HOP LEE ELOPES WITH GIRL.

Maysville Laundryman Attempts to Become Husband of Thirteen-Year-Old Mary Ebers.

Special to The Herald.

MAYSVILLE, Ky., Jan. 23.—Not for years has Maysville been so greatly shocked as by the disappearance of Hop Lee, a Chinese laundryman of this city.

In leaving town Hop Lee carried with him a pretty little slip of a girl, who has been here for some time; and he also took along all the laundry bundles in his shop. Now over 100 men in Maysville, who were compelled to patronize the men's furnishing goods stores tonight in order to look presentable in Church tomorrow morning, are vowing vengeance on Hop Lee for stealing their collars and shirts.

The girl who accompanies the Chinaman is only twelve years old. She is the companion of another girl who plays the violin on the streets. While the violinist discouraged waltzes and ragtime Mary Ellen Ebers passed under the hat. She was so pretty that none could resist her smile. As a result the nickels flocked to the violinist and her companion.

Hop Lee, the laundryman, watched the two girls. He is twenty years old and has been away from China only a few years. He persuaded the girl to elope with him. They fled to West Union, O. There the wedding ceremony was about to be performed when a telegram from Maysville interrupted the tying of the knot.

Hop Lee will be brought back to face the 100 angry men, and after his trial it will not be wise for him to remain in town.

The only truth in this able "special" is the fact that it was sent from Maysville—there being such a place as Maysville on the map—and that the parties went to West Union, O.—that place being on the map also.

The remainder of the able "special" is born of imagination of the 24-karat breed.

There has been no such person here as "Hop" Lee.

Therefore Maysville could not have been inexpressibly "shocked" when he left.

The "slip of a girl" that he "carried" away was a willing Barkis, and the honest little Celestial had provided most prodigally for her in the way of clothing and trinkets, beside furnishing an up-to-date conveyance.

For all of which he paid liberally and in spot cash—an example worthy of general emulation;

When he went away he left the key of his laundry with his next door neighbor, Mr. Jacob Cabbish, with instructions to deliver any laundry that might be called for.

And he did not take with him a single shirt or a solitary collar that didn't belong to him.

Therefore not one of the correspondent's 100 men were compelled to seek furnishing stores in order to look well in Church.

There was neither telegram or telephone or tele-anything stopping the wedding—only that Mr. "Hop" didn't tell Lee the West Union Court Clerk what he had been told to say as to his bride-to-be's residence;

Consequently, Mr. "Hop" will not be "brought back to face 100 angry men."

Although, at the end of his honeymoon, he is expected to come back of his own volition and to get as angry as 100 men ought to be when he views the ruins of his successful business—the act of an incendiary, inspired by just such talk and by such falsehoods as are contained in The Louisville Herald's "special."

The particulars of the burning of Lee Kwong's laundry were printed in yesterday's LEDGER.

The little Chinaman has been here for more than a year past, and in all his dealings he has been scrupulously prompt and honest.

One of his traits has been to attend to his own affairs and to let those of others alone,—for which reason, no doubt, he has incurred the enmity of some whose chief occupation is meddling with everybody's business except their own.

Lexington this year will have a tax levy of $1.75.

Mrs. Jennie Barr of Portsmouth has gone to Florida to spend the winter.

Protracted services began at the M.E. Church, South, in Washington last evening, to continue during the week. Preaching each evening by the Pastor, Rev. George Froh. Quarterly meeting will be held Saturday and Sunday, Rev. John R. Dearing presiding.

Cartmell extracts teeth without pain.

What's in a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. H. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, lesions and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Special Request.

88 In answering advertisements appearing in the columns of this paper, or when buying goods from a merchant whose advertisement appears in this paper, our readers are especially requested to state that they saw the advertisement in The Public Ledger. This will cost you nothing, and it will be gratefully appreciated by both the advertiser and the Editor.

DEALERS LODGE, L. Regular meeting of DeKalb O. F. at DeKalb Lodge Hall at 7.

John W. Thompson, Sec.

ANCIENT ORDER UNITED WORKMEN The A. O. U. W. will meet this evening at Nelson's on Second street. FRANK ARMSTRONG, R. H. Wallace, Recorder.

Considering the Time of the Year SUITS That We Are We've Sold of Our $15, $16.50, $18 Now Selling at $12.75

A fair quantity. But considering the value we give in these Suits at $12.75, we are surprised that there are any of them left at all. Never before in Maysville's Clothing History, in which we always have been largely identified, have such Suits sold at that price. We want our friends to take advantage of this sale. A glance at our windows will give you an idea what these Suits are; but a closer examination of them in the store will soon convince you that we give you good advice when we tell you to secure one of these Suits before they are gone.

The Home Store.

D. HECHINGER & CO.

Mr. John Rouark is reported critically ill at his home on Mill Creek. Mr. Rouark is upwards of seventy years old and it is thought he cannot recover.

A reception from 7 to 10 o'clock will be tendered Rev. R. E. Moss at the Christian Church this evening. Mr. Moss leaves tomorrow on his foreign trip.

The docket for the February term of the Mason Circuit Court contains twenty-seven new suits—seven equity and twenty common law. Four of the cases are divorce suits.

Mr. Charles E. Curran, who is employed by the Malleable Range Company of South Bend, Ind., left Saturday on a four months trip to San Francisco, via Chicago and Denver, Col. He will go up the Pacific coast to Portland, Oregon, and return via Seattle and the Northwest.

"The nicest and pleasantest medicine I have used for indigestion and constipation is Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets," says Richard F. Craig of Middlegrove, N.Y. "They work like a charm and do not gripe or have any unpleasant effect." For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

91 War was declared and Gerbrich decided the victor. Price and quality new Pianos $150 up.

Masters Cecil Sharp and Homer Frederick Easton received honorable mention in The Courier-Journal's Foreign Cities contest.

The tobacco barn on Mr. Ben Hook's place, brief mention of the burning being made in yesterday's paper, was insured for $300 in the Farmers' Mutual Benefit Company. The contents of the building were largely hay, potatoes and apples.

92 Icecream Soda at Traxel's.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.

Mrs. Johanna Seiberhelm, of Fortus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

How to Save $6½

Invest $8½ in one of these handsome $15 tailored suits. Many are in mixtures identical with fabrics shown for spring. What is $8½—measured as the price of a handsome frock? You pay that, and more, to have the simplest coat suit made. You pay that, and more, for materials and linings. Here you are spared the fatigue of choosing a design, of matching linings and trimmings, all the weariness of repeated fittings—and you save money beside.

Embroidery Ecstasy.

They are worth growing ecstatic about too—such loveliness, such exquisite daintiness, such complete difference from former patterns. Every woman who intends to use a yard of embroidery in preparing her spring wardrobe should see these gems. And the lower priced every-day sorts are not neglected. You'll find 3 groups of unusual merit at 5c, 10c, 15c and Remnants that would open the purse of a miser—it's like getting Hamburgs for nothing when prices are so little.

White Waistings.

They are waistings or complete suitings just as you choose—equally attractive in either case.

50c Fleece Piques 25c.
Plain Oxfords 25c to 50c.
35c, 29c, 25c Damasses, Oxfords and Vestings now 19c.
Fancy Oxfords, Striped Etamines and Piques 50c. Have been 75c.

The best 10c White India Linon in town. Try to match it. Full 40 inches wide.

Early Workers.

We are showing some charming fabrics for women who plan far ahead and think it none too soon for cotton frocks to be under way before the rush of early spring duties. They so closely simulate the woolen materials, you'll hardly believe they are all cotton and only 25c yard.

D. HUNT & SON.

Mr. P. W. Wheeler has taken temporary quarters in the Second story of Cunningham's barber shop across the street.

Mr. Lee B. Gray, who now resides at 431 West Ninth street, Cincinnati, is engineer and electrician in the Christian Standard Publishing House in that city.

THE BEE HIVE!

Taking Stock.

We found three pieces of White Oxford on the third floor; should have been shown last October; an oversight of course; but the oversight sells the goods for 25c instead of 50c; and so on through the house.

IT'S BARGAIN TIME NOW—Come every day. Ask any of the clerks to show you some of the goods we are cutting prices on. Probably the very thing you want is half price.

KINGS OF LOW PRICES MERZ BROS. PROPS. BEE HIVE.

Don't buy any spring goods yet. There is going to be a change in the style of fabrics. We have official information. You will thank us for the tip.
